PROPOSED PROJECT NAME:

Dictionary of Water

SUMMARY / BRIEF DESCRIPTION ABOUT THE PROPOSED PROJECT

Water – we all know the problematic nature of drinking water in most regions. But the meaning of “water“ includes much more aspects.

Some aspects of water should be presented in a „Dictionary of Water“, in a short and informative way. It can be continued and used in the next years.

RATIONALE FOR THE PROJECT:

Aspects of water are also - besides of all natural science aspects – for example:

- water in art
- water in music
- water in dreams
- water in our body: tears and other human fluids
- water in religions
- water in poems
- photos of water
- comparing mineral water / drinking water / sparkling system
- water for travelling, trading, „Boat People“, flight over water

- water bringing life and dead
- wastewater / treatment / toilets
- living in water (animals or legendary creature)
- water in fairytales

This project shall continue the product, that has started as a common project in the European Union (Comenius project). The previous results can be seen at www.tthews.de/html/water/index.htm
